Paul Rishell & Annie Raines

Old-timey blues, down and dirty and smooth as silk

Saturday, January 18 at 7:30 pm

Theodore Parker Church Parish Hall

1859 Centre St. (corner of Corey St.), West Roxbury, MA 02132

Paul and Annie started playing together in 1992, and they've been a working team since then, playing country blues, Chicago blues, southern gospel, and their own compositions at festivals, concert halls, and clubs all over the world. Paul on guitar and Annie on harmonica. They're the real deal!

"...Paul Rishell and Annie Raines [are] in stratospheric form, which means that some of the most satisfying blues around these days are wafting down on your head and into your being, courtesy of a partnership the theologically inclined may suspect to have been conceived in heaven..."
– Jerome Clark, rambles.net

Theodore Parker Church favorites Brian Cartwright and Karen Sauer will open. Brian on guitar, Karen on keyboard, and both on vocals bring fine musicianship to a quirky, fun repertoire of traditional and original songs.

Admission is $25. Cash preferred, cards okay.
