Squeezebox Stompers

wear your dancing shoes!

Saturday, November 2, 2024 at 7:30 pm

Theodore Parker Church Parish Hall

1859 Centre St. (corner of Corey St.), West Roxbury, MA 02132

What better way to celebrate the Day of the Dead than with great New Orleans-inspired music! This Massachusetts-based Americana roots band sparks images of the bayou with their lively repertoire of Cajun, Zydeco, blues, and folk favorites as well as original songs that are funny and fun.

The group is led by Ralph Tufo, who has been a part of the Boston music scene as a player of the piano accordion, Cajun accordion, concertina, and keyboards.

“Fun is the operative word for the Squeezebox Stompers. This joyous band brings out the best of Zydeco whether you’re from the East Coast, West Coast, or straight from the heart of Louisiana. Get your dancing shoes on!” — Holly Harris, Host, Spinning the Blues, WUMB Boston
